Presentation by Billie Jean Kutzer a Commissioner with the Blanco Historic Preservation Commission has a small trove of wedding portraits from the late 1800's-1900's that were acquired by her great grandmother, who made wedding dresses. We welcome the community to join us to share stories, photos, and documents related to our town's history.

Everyone is welcome. We will have a scanner on hand so that historic documents and photos can be shared with the commission. The month of May is recognized as the National Historic Preservation Month.

If you or your representatives have a disability that requires special arrangements and you plan to attend this public Workshop, please contact Billie Jean Kutzer at (210) 449-3022 within 72 hours of the workshop. Reasonable accommodations will be made to meet your needs at the workshop.
